

As a national association of consumer healthcare, herbal products, health supplement & health technology business operators, TSMIA commit to drive environmentally sustainable self-care.

We care for the environment by:

Plastics & Packaging

Pharmaceuticals in the Environment

CO₂ Footprint

Supporting members to navigate requirements and standards to deliver our ambitions, as well as help raising the bar on environmental sustainability

Actively involving for exchange of information, ideas and innovation, finding and creating opportunities to collaborate within and beyond self-care sectors